

JUNE OLSON: growing up as a union child in Lake Cowichan; joined auxiliary at 16; activities of women in auxiliary

JEANNE OUELLETTE: supporter of Longshormen's strike in 1935; worked with IWA

MURIEL OVERGAARD: Worked in retail stores; then as part-time school board employee; development of CUPE; NDP candidate

ALICE PERSON: IWA member; hired at Hammond Cedar during War; equal pay central issue; steward

JONNIE RANKIN: entered shipyards during the War; active in Marine Workers and Boilermakers Union; wrote women's column for union newsletter

MARION SARICH: worked as domestic from age 13; organized domestics in 1930s with Housewives' League; worked at Trocadero Cafe; organized and struck it; organized in HREU

JEAN SCOTT: Domestic worker in 1930s; in 40s worked for Retail, Wholesale Department Store Union; organized support for 1947 Packinghouse Workers' Strike; organized office workers into OTEU local 15

EDNA SHEARD: struggle to keep and support children in the Depression

BERTHA SOUDERHOLM: Active in Finnish community women's groups, worker at Berryland; involved in organizing campaign in 1940s; won end to piecework

LUBY STEFANI: shipyard work in WWII; worked as shipwright's helper; attitudes to women

BARBARA STEWART: Domestic worker in 1936; became waitress; became business rep. for VDLG

LIL STONEMAN: Teacher in 1920s; on relief in 1930s; active in unemployed movement; joined Women's Labour League

MARGE STORM: worked at Pacific Veneer since 1940s, became steward; fought for equal pay for women

EILEEN TALLMAN: Organized banks in 1940s; organized for Steelworkers; led campaign in Ontario to organize Eatons

EVA VASELENAK: worked in fish plant in Richmond; joined UFAWU; became organizer

CHRIS WADDELL: worked in Aristocratic Restaurant; joined HREU, helped to establish union and set precedent of information picketting.

CONNIE WHITE: organizer for ILGWU, worked in Boeing during WWII.

ELIZABETH WILSON: worked for CCF; organized unemployed in 30s