

* Dr. Preston brought up idea of having educational history pertaining to union struggles in the past in comparison to the present. Suggested a 15 minute period of educational talk at each meeting.

Mar. 18

^{notes}

- member died - members stand at attention : 2 minutes
 - minutes TLC: endorse HREU agreement
 - very poor returns on referendum re: membership fines - report laid over indefinitely
 - no new vests org'd: a few unpleasant matters to be ironed out in several days
 - signed Belmont Hotel
 - local reviewing Peter Pan, White Lunch, Edens Cafe on non-patronage list - "In view of the improved relationship between this local and employers & the fact that the nonpatronage list has not been particularly effected over a period of time." - remove from TLC list
 - and should it be necessary to place any firm on the non-patronage list in the future, that definite action be taken to make it felt & that the case be reviewed periodically."
 - Labor Betts Relations Cmtee - Coats rep.
- Br Mello: on "the need to stay together & really work as a unit for the betterment of our craftsmen, through the union. Questions were asked him about the cooks who joined the local in the early days, whether they were all male or not. Answer some were & cooks & it was pointed out that some Chinese cooks are joining now."

April 1, 1946: 3 initiations

- Van. Home Service Employees: letter "suggesting our support moral & financial" - Exec: moral, not financial at this time
- cmns: Handicapped; Solarium; Hist. Union Assn.; Can-Soviet Friendship
 - 'approval of stand taken', May Day Continuation Cmtee: suptd.
 - WEA: delegates
 - Watts: org. Hotel Georgia - Teams & telephone calls "report was very encouraging what with leaflets & notices showered on the place" mtg.
 - Ansell on vests: "Ceiling wages broken wages up 25 for waitresses, 28 for waiters; those waiters already on the job up to 32. Looks up to 66.95. No new houses signed so far"

April 15, 1946:

- 4 initiations
- May Day Cmtee., vest agree. discussed negotiating with members volunteering from different restaurants: Sarah, Sadie Tompkins, Jean Klemchuk, Marie Steves