

b) Labour Disputes and Strikes

Boilermakers Dispute - Vancouver 1943, MacInnis Collection, Box 34,
File 12

Clippings and reports on conflict between LPP leadership of union and CCL leadership. Local placed under trusteeship, etc. Women comprised a significant sector of shipyards workers and were either involved in conflict (as union stewards) or else affected by it.

UBCSC

Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders Union Clippings

Clippings on response of union to other crafts and new workers in the yards. Some clippings about internal struggle. Member accused of molesting girl.

VCA

CCL - Docket 1

Clippings from 1942 - 1943. Intervention of CCL against Boilermakers leadership and their supporters (IWA). Province, Friday April 16, 1943: vote on leadership, reference to women workers.

VCA

United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union Archives

Includes references to negotiations and conflicts in the fishing industry. Vol. 72, Folder 2: material on restrictions on right to strike.

VCA

c) Post-War Hopes and Fears

After the War - Depression or Poverty, Buck, Tim; National Leader of the LPP, 1944 File 43 - 17(i) Bennett Collection

Calls for guarantees that every man and woman will have a post-war job; want living wages; demobilization gratuities for women and men; widow's allowance, Old Age Pension; general reconstruction programme.

UBCSC

Canada: Advisory Council on Post-War Reconstruction; Post-War Problems of Women, 1945.

Suggests that women can transfer to domestic and farm labour: conditions in those sectors should be improved.

VPL