

BUSTER FOSTER: Steward in the shipyards in WWII; supervising women; strike during the war

JOAN GILLATT: Changes in women's government employment during WWII, steward for BCGEA

THELMA GODKIN: IWA steward; first woman in the woods in Chemainus area; attitudes of male coworkers

LIL GODFREY: IWA Women's Auxiliary Lake Cowichan; Federated Auxiliary movement; activities of auxiliary on local and district levels.

BETTY GREENWELL: Mine/Mill Auxiliary; social functions and union building

MARY GREENWELL: children and auxiliary involvement; family background; Lake Cowichan Women's Auxiliary of the IWA

JOSEPHINE HALLOCK: Organized domestic workers with the Trades and Labour Congress in 1943; HREU member; active in Union Label Committee BCFL

WINIFRED HENDERSON: Telephone operator, 1920s; women in the CCF;

GLADYS HILLAND: IWA; 1946 march to Victoria during strike; breakaway from IWA in 1948

EFFIE JONES: CCF, CPC membership and activism; organizing the unemployed; Housewives' League; support for 1938 post office occupation

JANET JUDD: Postal clerk; one of first female fulltimers in Vancouver Post Office; establishing right to maternity leave; racism at work

PEGGY KENNEDY: Boeing Aircraft during the war: equal pay but not equal promotion

VERNA LEDGER: Work at Canadian Forest Products; established equal pay in 1966

ANNE MARSHALL: Waitress, garment worker; organized at Jantzen's; entered ILGWU, full time organizer 1946-1962

MAY MARTIN: Restaurant worker; organized in Yukon; take over of Vancouver leadership by International

SARA MCKINNON: Worked at St. Paul's Hospital in laundry; changed company union into real union; CCF involvement.

EDRA MCLEOD: Worked at Boeings during WWII; worked for B.C. Hydro 1944, bus driver

PEARL MOREAU: Worked at Fraser Cafe; fought for stronger union shop; VDTLC member

MONA MORGAN: led district council of IWA Auxiliaries; CPC women's organizing

EMILY NUTALL: worked in restaurant industry 1930s; organizer for HREU in 40s