

a. WOMEN'S LABOUR HISTORY PROJECT INTERVIEWS

ANITA ANDERSON: Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union, domestic worker, Yugoslavian community and union consciousness

ANNA ARTHUR: Work at Boys' Industrial School, organization of the B.C.G.E.A; equal pay for equal work.

JACK ATKINSON: Ladysmith Ladies' Auxiliary of the I.W.A., describes attitudes of women in the area to the auxiliary.

ELLEN BARBER: One of the first women active in the Vancouver Trades and Labour Congress; laundry and communication workers; working during WWII as matron

PEARL BARRINGTON: From conductorette to bus driver; building the bus drivers' union; solidarity among women drivers

LYDIA BASTION: Okanagan fruit cannery worker; Oliver Fruit Co-op; work environment; building the Fruit and Vegetable Workers' Union

ANNA BELANKAYA: Winnipeg Garment workers organize; ILGWU vs. UGW, rank and file militants, garment workers in B.C.

LORI BELIN: Lake Cowichan in the 1930s; building the I.W.A.; Lake Cowichan Ladies' Auxiliary

MYRTLE BERGEN: domestic and agricultural work; on staff for the I.W.A.; communism and the unions; the WIUC split in 1948; United Packinghouse Workers' Union organizing in the Okanagan in 1946.

DAISY BROWN: On staff for the HREU; marital status of women in the hospitality industry; conditions of work and consciousness

RUTH BULLOCK: Domestic work; CCF activist; childbirth and birth control in the 1930s; cannery work in WWII; joining the Trotskyists; organizing clerical workers; Burrard Drydocks.

JOSEPHINE CHARLIE: Fish cannery worker; UFAWU and Native Brotherhood membership; race conflicts; early organization; childcare issues

MARGE DALSKOG: Logging camps of the 1930s; raising children in the wilderness; women's community spirit in camps; work at Boeings WWII.

VIVIAN DOWDING: birth control pioneer; CCF membership

ALMA FAULDS: fruit cannery worker; becoming shop steward; fruit cannery strike; union divisions; Packinghouse Workers vs. Vegetable Workers

SUZIE FAWCETT: Working at Hotel Vancouver; membership in CBRT; solidarity strike in 1950

ELIZABETH FORDHAM: raising a child on her own in the Depression; welfare; eviction fights; unemployed organizations; Women's Labour League