

Jan. 30, 1941:

- Pres. Huko turned meeting over to Jack Weinberger Int'l. Rep
- entire Executive submitted resignations - accepted

Books to auditing committee

"On account of the disturbed conditions of Local 28, there are no funds on hand to pay the tax to The International Union."

- only way out is if Int'l. assume temporary supervision - chose committee of 5 - hotel waiter, extra waiter, one striker, 2 waitresses: temp exec -

Bros. A.J. Wilson

Gladys Davis

T. Cuddelford

Julie Leckie

JH Mevelli

Joan Malachuk (alt.)

April 1/41: Special Meeting -

- Weinberger ruled that Local 28 cannot participate in demo. (May Day) not sponsored by AFL exclusively - objections made but not sustained

- organizing work: Sister Flo Allen

Int Union paid dues to itself from Local's defense Fund

Flo Allen now TLE delegate

- apt 2 more membs. to temp executive
- discontinue Bros. Mevelli as office assistant
- objections vs Flo Allen as temp BA - Weinberger:
  - "However, whether those who are objecting do approve or do not approve, decisions will stand as announced."
- rather warm discussion
- q. legality of Bateman's membership: member of other union - Bateman stated that pledges himself
- Weinberger stated election would happen soon

April '41: - AFU wants loan repayment of $200 from Hotel Van strike - q. of whether loan or gift

TLE negotiating with Hotel Van

April 28 - exec.: Local 28 broke when promissory note paid - New Palace Cafe, Empire continuously changing their help.

May 12, 1941: New houses reaped by Flo Allen: Thrifty Lunch, Palancar Cabaret

- sublet hall

- move to new hall, dispose of chairs to pay for move election set -